

Mother's Day 2019

HELPFUL SCRIPTURES

SERMON NOTES

Proverbs 31:10, 28-29

I. Being a “CHAYIL” Woman (“Excellent” – NASV, “Virtuous” – KJV, “Noble Character” – NIV)

A. A Woman of _____

1. This was a word Solomon used when he rendered verdicts in legal matters.

1 Kings 1:52

- a. A “chayil” woman is worthy of her family’s trust.

Proverbs 31:11-12

Job 2:9-10

Esther 9:32

- b. Not surprisingly, a “chayil” enhances her husband’s reputation.

Proverbs 31:23

B. A Woman of _____

1. David used this word in prayer when God delivered him from his enemies.

2 Samuel 22:40

- a. Inward Strength

Proverbs 31:13

Proverbs 31:15

Proverbs 31:17

- b. Inward Strength

Proverbs 31:16

Proverbs 31:24

- c. Because of these qualities in inner & outward strength, she looks to the future with confidence!

Proverbs 31:25

C. She is a Woman Who is _____

1. Pharaoh used this word in a statement to Joseph regarding the disposition of his people.

Genesis 47:6

- a. Whatever comes a “chayil” woman’s way, she can capably handle it.

Proverbs 31:21

Proverbs 31:27

- b. She not only capably provides for her own family, but also demonstrates a concern for others

Proverbs 31:20

D. A Woman of _____

1. This was how someone described David to king Saul.

1 Samuel 16:18

- a. We see the reason for David’s aspect of “chayil” in David’s response to Goliath.

1 Samuel 17:45-46

- b. It is this characteristic of CHAYIL which undergirds all of the others.

CONCLUSIONS:

Proverbs 31:28 – 29

John 1:12-13

John 3:3, 5

1 Peter 1:23

1 Peter 3:21